HAIL TO OUR CHIEF! Appearance of Edenton.

EDENTON, N. C., May 22, 1872. Leaving the hospitable town of Murfreesboro this morning, we had a most delightful ride down the Meherrin to Winton, on the steamer HELEN SMITH at which point we took passage on the elegant steamer ELLA, Captain Ainsly, which boat moved us down the placid waters of the Chowan, at the speed of some ten miles per hour. It was the first time your correspondent had ever traversed these waters, and he must acknowledge the pleasure he experienced in viewing the splendid scenery presented to view on either side of this broad expanse of the Chowan.

Nature at this season lends unusual charms to this section of the country, and we find ourselves wishing that we were a river planter with abandance of the good things of life around us. The scene upon the boat to-day was rather amusing. You will remember that the Radical District Nominating Convention assembles in Plymouth to morrow, and on the boat were delegates to both the Radical and Conservative Nominating Conventions, from the several counties above this place, and among the Radical ring we noticed the inevitable Congressman, Butler's corncobb, backed by a host of Federal office-holders, who have doubtless come down to force Cobb's nomination, Col. Carrow and one or two of his detectives being of the party. We must think Cobb's chances for the nomination are weak, from being thus bolstered up. The commingling of the two elements to-day, afforded us no little amusement. It is more than probable that Cobb will be thrown over board to-merrow; and McLindsay, the land pirate, into whose hands John Pool wished to consign Mr. put forward. There was an executive session on the treaty.

House-The election committee reported, confirming Herndon from Texas in his seat and paying his contestant $2,000, which passed.

Kerr called up the Senate bill provi ding for the redemption and sale of lands held by the United States, under the several acts levying direct taxes, and moved a substitute for such bill, providing that all the lands now owned or held by the United States, by virtue of proceedings under the act of June 7th, 1862 and other acts for the collection of direct taxes in the insurrection ary States, may be redeemed and restored to the original or their representatives within two years, on the payment of the tax and costs, with interest thereon at 10 per cent. The applicants are to pay the value of all permanent improvements that may have been made by other persons after acquisition of the property by the United States. Property not claimed within two years is to be sold at public auction. The act is not to apply to property used, in whole or in part, for National Cemeteries or other public purposes. Purchasers of property from the United States, who have lost, through inability to establish their title, are to be reimbursed by the Government. The substitute was agreed to and the bill passed.

It has been ascertained that the vesel which was in collision with the steamship Baltimore, off Hastings, night before last, was the Spanish screw steamship Lorenzo Lemprun; she received no injuries. The luggage of the passengers of the Baltimore, and cargo in the after compartments will be saved, but the forward compartments are filled with water.

When the crew of the Baltimore at tempted to lower her boats just after the collision, the gearing used for that purpose would not work, and it was impossible to float them. The passengers were seized with consternation, but their fears of a watery grave were soon allayed by the promptness with which the coast guard at Hastings came to probable be a total wreck.

Washington Affairs. WASHINGTON, May 24. Senator West appeared to-day before the Committee on Finance and contended for a reduction of the duty upon cotton bagging. The Committee agreed to report a reduction of twenty-five per cent. Gen. Young succeeded in getting through the House to-day an appropri ation of a hundred thousand dollars for public buildings at Atlanta. The Senate Committee on Finance consolidated the tax on distilled spirits from sixty-five to seventy cents, but have made reductions in other respects so as to make it about the same aggregate as proposed by the House; and have further amended the tariff and tax bill, by making the uniform tax on all tobacco twenty-four cents per pound instead of twenty. They have stricken out the section providing one-third of the duties on imports which may be paid in currency. The bill will come up in the Senate to-morrow.

Caldwell, at that time, was Lieuten ant-Governor of the State and President of the Senate. The Legislature was overwhelmingly Radical. The Governor had unbounded influence with that body. One word of object tion-one effort by him-one appeal would have been sufficient to thwart Swepson's purposes.

How did the Governor set! Did he oppose Swepson then? Did he offer the slightest objections to his plans?

No! no!! no!!! He was hand in glove with Swepson. He advocated Swepson's measures. He framed and wrote the Act, ratified January 29th, appropriating Seven Millions of Dollars for the construction of the Western Road. It was chiefly through Caldwell's efforts that this bill passed the Legislature.

Under cover of this Swepson-Caldwell Act, Littlefield and Swepson bled the State of North Carolina to the tune of several millions of dollars.

In answer to repeated calls, the Judge appeared upon THE Chowan Baptist Association is the portico, and after thanking the audience for this manifestation of their regard, proceeded to address them in a very forcible manner for about thirty minutes. He assured them of his fatigue, that he had been on the train the night previous-had spoken two hours at Jackson, and had traveled by private conveyance more than twenty miles to reach this place. Notwithstanding all THE oat crop in the neighborhood of these hindrances, he spoke forcibly and with spirit, and those who heard him were delighted with his bold and manly uterances. Our people are proud of their candidate—proud of his unimpeachable private character and justly proud of his talents and learning. We greatly regret that he will not be able to make an appointment here, for we think THE recent rains have greatly im- it would be highly beneficial for him to address the people of Hertford before the election. Lennon, of | Hertford well be represented there, and unswick county, died recently at the | we hope their deliberations will be harmonious and conducive of the best interests of the party. We pledge, in advance, our support to the nominee of that Convention, no matter who may be the fortunate individual. We have no patience with that kind of party allegiance which prompts a man to bolt the nomination, if his personal prefer ences are not strictly regarded. We believe in sacrificising everything for the cause, except the great principle which the cause represents.

We understand that some one has been playing a high handed game of forgery in securing names to a petition for the release of certain negroes, confined ices and a half, and the other three in the penitentiary, hailing from this county. It has been ascertanied that the names of several of our more prominent citizens were to that petition who did put them there or authorize it to be done. Among the names so torged was that of Jno. A. Vane, Esq., BRIGHAM, the old man beaten by County Treasurer, who emphatically alleges that he refused to sign the petincy, has died from his wounds, and tion, and declares that he will prosecute the forger if he can succeed in detect ing him. We are disposed to think that many of the petitions sent to Raleigh, bearing upon them names of repectability, have been gotten up exacturprised at anything that may be done by those who are active in their efforts o build up Radicalism at the South. They will not hesitate to forge names or do worse, even, when the end to be secured is the addition of two black votes the Superior Court, for ten years to the strength of the party. And need we wonder at these little moral eccentricities in the lesser lights of the CUMBERLAND county Conservative party, when Governors and men in other high positions do not hesitate to dip their fingers into the public Treasury without warrant or authority? The times are indeed sadly out of joint, and ascality seems to be predominant in many quarters. We have just learned that Rev. J. Henry Smith, of the Presbyterian Church, whose home we think is at Greensboro, has consented to deliver he annual address at the Wesleyan Female College, in June, and Rev. Mr. Sledd of Lynchburg, Va., will preach the sermon to the graduating The district Conference of the M. E. Church, for this, the Murfreesboro, district will begin its session here on the 4th June. LAND OF THE SOUTH.

We reproduce a gem, which is to the manor born, from the pen of our gifted and lamented friend, A. B. Meek, of Alabama. It has been several years since his noble spirit passed away, but these and other beautiful lines from his pen will long live to be read and re-read by his admirers. May the turf lie light and the grass grow green upon the earth that covers the ashes of A. B. Meek.—South, N. Y.

How proud thy mountains rise!
How sweet thy scenes on every hand,
How fair thy covering skies!
But not for this, oh! not for these,
I love thy fields to roam,
Thou hast a dearer smell to me—

Thy rivers roll thy liquid wealth
Unequalled to the sea;
Thy hills and valleys bloom with health

Not for their azure dome— Sweet Sunny South I cling to thee, Thou art my native home.

And Heaven's best gift to man is thine, God bless thy rosy girls! Like sylvan flowers they sweetly shine, Their hearts are pure as pearls,

And grace and goodness circle them.
Where'er their footsteps roam—
How can I then whilst loving them,
Not love my native home?

Land of the South, imperial land!
Then her's a health to thee!
Long as thy mountain barriers stand,
Msy'st thou be blest and free!

May dark dissension's banner ne'er Wave o'er thy fertile loam; But should it come, there's one will die, To save his native home!
